SUBJECT: Request for Lecturers

TO: Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

1. The U. S. Army Strategic Intelligence School has instituted a new program of instruction for its Attache and Strategic Intelligence courses. As a result of the scheduling for this new program, it will be necessary for several lecturers to present their subjects to the Attache Class and then again at a later date to the Strategic Intelligence students rather than to a joint class as in the past.

2. It is requested that lecturers be provided to present the following topics to the Attache students:

✓a. Nature and Significance of Strategic Intelligence
1330-1520, Monday, 23 October

Lyman Kirkpatrick
b. National Security Structure
0830-0920, Tuesday, 24 October

c. Organization, Mission and Functions of CIA STATINTL
0930-1130, Tuesday, 24 October

✓d. Strategic Intelligence Process
0930-1020, Thursday, 26 October

e. Production of National Estimates
1040-1130, Thursday, 26 October

✓f. Production of the National Intelligence Surveys
1140-1230, Thursday, 26 October

SUBJECT: Request for Lecturers

3. The scheduling for the 59th Strategic Intelligence class is being programmed for January 1962 and requirements for assistance will be submitted at a later date. The requirements will generally parallel those in the past.

4. All students are cleared for access up to and including TOP SECRET information.

5. It would be appreciated if the names of the speakers, their security clearance and classification of their presentation could be forwarded by 3 October, 1961.
